Personality at Work

I am open to new experiences, as I often try new technologies to improve myself at work. I enjoy planning and have a knack for problem-solving, always seeking the best ways to tackle challenges. I can manage pressure well, as I often maintain focus and determination while gaming or working.

Work DNA

In the same rhythm as I code, I embrace the energetic beats of electronic music that inspire me to move. The fun of gaming teaches me to strategize and handle pressure effectively. While I may seem calm, my deep and refined thoughts are shaped by classical music, allowing me to see the bigger picture and think strategically. I am someone who isn't afraid to explore new challenges in life and work.
